"Up-beat and positive, inspiring and uplifting — I thought 100% Design was really fantastic this year. I particularly enjoyed exploring the international pavilions and the diverse products by small independent designers and manufacturers. I only intended to visit briefly but ended up staying the whole day."

Testimonials

"We made some excellent contacts at 100% Design, resulting in our products being specified for ongoing projects. We also met an established international retailer who we will begin working with in spring of 2011; this will be our entry to the North American market. In addition, we received a lot of UK and International press for our Vessel series, which we launched at the show."

Ryan Malone, decode, London

"We come to 100% Design every year; it is a great place to spot trends and meet new designers. We are always looking for new products, and already have our eye on some designers from the 2010 show."
